From Tuesday October 30. to Saturday November 3. 1722.

St. James's, October 30.

THIS being the Birth-Day of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, there was a very numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction: And at Night there were Illuminations, and other Publick Demonſtrations of Joy.

St. James's, October 31.

The Archbiſhop and Biſhops of the Province of Canterbury, having on Friday laſt confirmed the Choice made by the Clergy of the Lower Houſe of the Reverend Dr. Stanhope Dean of Canterbury for their Prolocutor, the following Addreſs was this Day introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop into the Upper Houſe, and unanimouſly agreed to by the Lords the Biſhops: And being communicated to the Clergy of the Lower Houſe, was likewiſe unanimouſly agreed to by them. The two Houſes being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſhold, waited upon His Majeſty, and preſented it to His Majeſty this Day. They were received very graciouſly, and had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Preſident of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury; and of the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame Province, in Convocation aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and Clergy, of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation aſſembled, beg Leave, with the greateſt Sincerity, and Zeal, to expreſs our Abhorrence of the Traiterous Conſpiracy, which your Majeſty hath ſo happily diſcovered, againſt your ſacred Perſon and Government. A Conſpiracy ſo unnatural in itſelf, ſo execrable in its Circumſtances, and which, had it ſucceeded, muſt have been ſo terrible and fatal in its Effects, that the leaſt Thought of it fills our Souls with Horror at the extreme Wickedneſs of the Deſign; and with the utmoſt Deteſtation of all thoſe deſperate Men, who could engage in the Subverſion of your Majeſty's Government; and, by that, in the utter and unavoidable Ruin of the Religion, and Liberties, of their Native Country.

We Congratulate your Majeſty upon the Diſcoveries already made of this barbarous Undertaking; and we earneſtly beſeech God ſo to direct your Councils, that theſe Depths of Satan, this Myſtery of Iniquity, and all the Springs of it, may be traced and clearly laid open; and that you may be able not only to work our Deliverance at this Time; but, by rooting out the Seeds of Diſloyalty and Rebellion, to ſecure and convey our happy Eſtabliſhment to all future Generations.

Agreeable to theſe Profeſſions, and Prayers, ſhall be our Practice, and Behaviour, in our ſeveral Stations. The more Induſtrious we ſee your Enemies in ſowing Sedition, and labouring to undermine and deſtroy our Proteſtant Settlement in your Royal Family; the more Diligent will we be in inſtilling into the Minds of your People the Principles of Fidelity, and Loyalty, to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government. Nor will we be the Teachers only, but the Examples, of both;

both; in a juſt Senſe of our Duty to God, who has appointed us the Preachers of Obedience to Governours for Conſcience ſake; of Gratitude to your Majeſty, under whoſe auſpicious Reign we enjoy ſo many, and great Bleſſings; and of the Obligations of our own Oaths, by which we have abjured the Pretender to your Crown, and ſolemnly bound our ſelves, before God and the World, to defend your Majeſty to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all Traiterous Conſpiracies and Attempts; and to ſecure the Crown of theſe Realms to your Majeſty and your Heirs: And we are ſenſible that we ſhould be the moſt abandoned of all Mankind, if we, whoſe Duty it is to inculcate into others a Religious Regard to their Oaths, ſhould not take the utmoſt Care, that all our Words and Actions be ſtrictly conformable to our own.

The Concern for our Civil Liberties, and Legal Rights, which Experience has taught us to be precarious under a Popiſh Prince, is common to us with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects: But as Religion is our more immediate Care, under your Majeſty, our Supreme Governour and moſt Gracious Protector; we dread to think how ſoon the whole Work of the Reformation would be deſtroyed, and Popery become the Religion, not of theſe Kingdoms only, but of all Europe, if it ſhould pleaſe God for our Sins to give Succeſs to theſe deſperate Attempts; being fully convinced that a greater Deluſion cannot poſſeſs the Hearts of Men, than to hope for any thing but utter Deſtruction to a Proteſtant Church, under a Popiſh Prince, who muſt think himſelf obliged in Conſcience to deſtroy it.

As the preſent happy Settlement of the Crown is our only Security, under God, againſt theſe terrible Calamities to Church and State; may he evermore protect your Sacred Perſon, and thoſe of your Royal Family, againſt all the Deſigns and Conſpiracies of wicked Men: May your Government be peaceable and proſperous; and your Reign long: And may you never want an Heir to ſit upon your Throne, who, after your Example, ſhall be the Defender of our Faith, the Protector of our Church, and a Bulwark to the Reformed Religion, againſt all the Efforts of Popery and Superſtition.

His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you kindly for this Loyal and Dutiful Addreſs. The Zeal you expreſs for the Safety of my Perſon and Government, and your juſt Abhorrence of the Traiterous Deſigns that have been carried on againſt both, give me great Satisfaction.

And as I doubt not but your joint Endeavours will, by the Bleſſing of God, very much contribute to the Support of our happy Conſtitution; ſo you may be fully aſſured, that I ſhall do every thing on my Part to encourage the Clergy, and to maintain the Church of England, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in a ſafe and flouriſhing Condition.

St. James's, Nov. 2. The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Seſſion of the Peace held at Kilmainham the 4th Day of October 1722.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and gracious Adminiſtration.

It is with the utmoſt Horrour and Indignation we behold the Practices and Conſpiracies of thoſe Men, who, in favour of a Popiſh Pretender, endeavour to deſtroy the beſt eſtabliſhed Church, the moſt wiſely framed Conſtitution, and happieſt Government in the World: Men, whom no Obligations of Religion, Conſcience, or even their own true Intereſt can engage, or the Sanctions of the moſt ſolemn Oaths can bind to Loyalty and Allegiance.

We

We on our Parts, engaged by the higheſt Obligations of Duty and Intereſt, ſhall always be ready to employ our Lives and Fortunes in Support of that Government by which both are ſo happily and glorioufly defended; and endeavour to approve ourſelves Subjects not unworthy of ſo Wiſe, ſo Gracious and ſo Good a Sovereign.

To ſupport the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe and fully to compleat the Happineſs of the preſent Age, may your Majeſty's Reign be long and Proſperous; and that thoſe Bleſſings may be continued to lateſt Times, may there never be wanting to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms a happy Succeſſor of your moſt illuſtrious Line and Virtues.

An humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Burgh of Perth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Charles Leſlie, Eſq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Roxburghe one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Hague, Nov. 6, N. S. Monday laſt the final Reſolution was taken at Nimeguen by the States of Gelderland, to declare the young Prince of Naſſau Stadhouder, Captain-General and Admiral of that Province; and immediately M. de Randwyck Son to the Preſident of the Aſſembly of thoſe States, was diſpatched for Dieren to carry the News to the Prince. The Day after, the intended Deputation conſiſting of 18 Members of the three Diſtricts into which that Province is divided, went to wait on the Prince who entertained them at Dinner: In the Afternoon he was proclaimed at Nimeguen with a triple Diſcharge of the Artillery, and there were all that Night great Rejoicings with Bonfires and Illuminations. This Day the Prince is to be at Nimeguen, to ſign the Limitations and take the Oaths. He is to chuſe for his Guards one of four Regiments to be propoſed to him, and it is ſaid he will fix upon Welderen's. 'Tis ſaid he will paſs the Winter at Dieren.
